  - There were $26.00 in NSF fees
  - Scott made a motion to accept the finance report as read. Tammy Beauregard 2nd. Carried

6. Business Arising from the Minutes:

- A) Roughrider Evening – there will three appearances from the two Roughriders – one at each school and the evening event.
- Asking for a donation to the Food Bank as admission to the evening portion
- Will spend about 1 hour at each of the school (1 – 2 pm at Silverspring and 2:15 – 3:15 at Mother Teresa)
- Discussion of having door prizes – centered around people signing up to volunteer and a separate one for past or current members
- Perhaps have supper with the executive
- After the Riders give their talk on volunteerism and community involvement there will be an autograph session
- Soccer and Softball registration to immediately follow the speaker presentation. Rachelle will try to line up volunteers for 7 pm
- Tammy Beauregard made a motion to spend up to $2000.00 on refreshments, door prizes etc for the Rider Evening on February 25th 2009 from 6:30 – 7:15pm. Scott 2nd. Carried
- B) Rink expansion/Storage – St. Joe's is getting too small for storage space of equipment
- Approach the Alice Turner library since they are expanding perhaps could have some storage space there
- Forest Grove may be moving their stuff out – Arin will check into
- Move one sport to Centennial School
- Arin will plan a meeting with each community representative and facilities to see if a plan can be worked out for all involved.
- Kevin will continue checking into

7. New Business

No new business

8. Chairs Report/Correspondence

Covered in above

9 Coordinator's Reports

- a. Indoor Coordinators – By April there will need to be another new Indoor Coordinator. Registration was down for the winter session – demographics changing? Cold snap?
- b. Membership – 39 memberships sold
- c. Rink Coordinator – Valve needs to be turned off really tight or there can be problems. SCA is one of the few rinks that were flooded this year. Public skating is Wednesdays from 7-9 pm and Saturday and Sunday from 2 – 4 pm. Motion made by Scott to accept Ian Evertan as a new Rink Coordinator. 2nd by Kevin. Carried
- d. Social Coordinator – none
- e. Communications – deadline is January 21st for newsletter. Winter Olympics planned for Feb. 28 from 2-5 pm in the Ebenezer parking lot
- f. Soccer – upcoming registration. Will be looking for a couple of Coordinators as well
- g. Softball – upcoming registration. Forms will need to be created. Scott may have a softball binder at his home. Volunteers may be needed
- h. Civics – Ward 10 public meeting was poorly attended. Looking at building a north bridge. Deer crossing sign was taken down because it was not suited to the city. (it was a highway sign) This sign was set up by the Meewasin Valley Authority. Also looking into the lights at Rever and Attridge.
- i. Volunteer – all is good
- j. Basketball, Touch Football and Youth Coordinator were all absent.

Motion to accept the reports as read made by Scott and 2nd by Joanne. Carried
